

3-322.16.02: Lunularia cruciata

Introduction

Someone who has belittled and put down by parents, family, and spouse. Not allowed to do her own thing, her study or hobby. Always forced to adapt and serve.

Mind

Very fine, timid.

Fear: hold a speech in public, to express himself.

Desire: hospice work, loves handwork.

Anger, indignation.

General

Desire vinegar, sour, fish.

Aversion shells, sharp.

Body

Nose: bad cold.

Abdomen: bloating; liver cyst.

Urinary: kidney stone.

Limbs: sciatica, lumbar, extending left leg, with numbness and cramps, < night.

Skin: painful scratches around the nails.

Lunularia cruciata

German: Mondbechermoos.

Botany: shines easily, it has crescent-shaped pockets, in which brood bodies are located, it can spread very well asexually. In horticulture (greenhouses) it likes to occur, since the brood bodies spread through the pouring.